

THE ARCASIA AWARDS FOR ARCHITECTURE (AAA) - 2013 EDITION

An Annual Awards Instituted by ARCASIA for 2013 Edition exemplary Architectural Projects in the ARCASIA REGION

RULES & REGULATIONS FOR THE ARCASIA AWARDS FOR ARCHITECTURE (AAA)

1. INTRODUCTION

ARCASIA in its endeavors to raise the standard of the built environment throughout Asia in general and in its Member countries in particular, has instituted the ARCASIA AWARDS FOR ARCHITECTURE (AAA) in order to encourage and recognize exemplary works done by ARCHIRECTS working in Asia. The first three in a two-year cycle of Awards were given every two years beginning 1992 during the ASIAN CONGRESS OF ARCHITECTS (ACA) organized by ARCASIA. The fourth Award was given in 1998 during the ACA-7 held in Colombo, Sri Lanka. From 1999 the Awards are being adjudged during the year in which ARCASIA Forum held and conferred in the year in which ARCASIA holds its congress. In 2012, mandate was given to the President of ARCASIA 2013-2014 to restructure the AAA from 2 years to 1-year cycle, and the judging and conferment of Awards will be within the same year as the Forum or ACA.

An independent Panel of Jury Member consisting of leading architects of Asia, nominated by the ARCASIA Council, shall assess and determine the winners, and the Council shall announce the AWARDS.

1.1 What is ARCASIA?

ARCASIA or ARCHITECTS REGIONAL COUNCIL OF ASIA is an organization of eighteen National Institutes of Architects from the Asian region extending from Pakistan in the West to Philippines in the East, Peoples Republic of China in the North to Indonesia in the South.

The objectives of ARCASIA are:

- To unite National Institutes of Architects on a democratic basis throughout the Asian region, to foster friendly, Intellectual, artistic, educational and scientific ties.
- To foster and maintain professional contacts, mutual cooperation and assistance among Member Institutes.
- To represent architects of the Member Institutes at national and international levels.
- To promote the recognition of the architects role in society.
- To promote the development and education of architects and architectural professional in their service to society and;
- To promote research and technical advancement in the field of the built environment.
- The Council of the ARCASIA consists of all the Presidents of the National Institutes. The organization itself serves as an extension for each Member Institute's regional program and relations. Annual Meetings are held in different Member Institute countries to deliberate and to give collective directions and representation to matters that affect the architectural profession in the Asian region.

Note: The Scope of the Awards was changed over the years to these 10 Categories instead of four as original planned. The Council in its 19th Meeting, Colombo 1998, on the recommendations of Ar. P. Kasi endorsed by the Advisor to the Awards, Ar. Syed Zaigham Jaffery approved the above categories. Earlier, the first Awards Adjudicated in Lahore in 1992 was in the four broad categories only. During the 13th Meeting of the Council and later on the written recommendation of the 1st Convenor of the Awards, Syed Zaigham S. Jaffery, six categories were adopted by the Council in its 14th Meeting, Hong-Kong-1993. Consequently in the 2nd (Manila-1994), 3rd (Jakarta-1996) and the 4th Awards Cycle (Colombo-1998), entries in 6 categories were invited for judging in the Seoul-1999. From 5th Awards Cycle, entries, 8 categories were considered. 27th Council meeting in Beijing in 2006, it was decided to increase the number of submissive in each category from one to two. In 2013, 2 new categories are introduced to promote Social Responsible and Sustainable Architecture.

- 3.7 As per decision of the 18th Meeting in 1997 the Council may decide from time to time, as matter of policy, to increase or decrease these Categories and the announcement released by the Convenor shall clearly state the category for which the Awards will be conferred in that cycle of the Awards well in time.
